THE LATEST

Yesterday's Storm.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Dispatches show that the storm of yesterday and last night was severe wherever felt. The center of the cyclone passed yesterday afternoon midway between Norfolk and Washington, on the left coast, near Cape May, and probably pursued a northeasterly path, and about one hundred miles from the coast. Rain now falling in New England. Elsewhere the weather is clear, or partly cloudy.

Along the New England coast numerous small craft were sunk, but no loss of life is reported, while larger vessels sought secure harbor and anchorages.

By the breaking of dams at Chester Creek, Pa., Crazier's mills, at Upland, were flooded, and several hundred hands temporarily thrown out of employment. The mills in Chester are much damaged.

Anxious About France.

National Associated Press to the Star.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A special dispatch to the Times from Syria, dated to-day, says the Porte has questioned the French representative there as to whether France would intervene in the interest of peace between Russia and Turkey.

Heavy Freshet.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. Y., Oct. 5.—A great rain storm last night caused a heavy freshet in the Raritan River. The water has risen over six feet, and is about high-water mark and is still rising.

WASHINGTON.

Special to the Star.

THE BELGIAN MISSION.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The Star of this evening mentions as a candidate for the Belgian mission Col. Goodloe, of Lexington, and Gen. E. H. Murray, of Louisville. It also states that Rev. Stuart Robinson, of Louisville, has written a letter recommending John M. Harlan for the vacant Supreme Court Judgeship. Judge Bradley warmly urges the appointment of some one familiar with the civil law, which suggestion is thought to be in the interest of Judge Hunt, of Louisiana.

VIRGINIA PROBABLY DEMOCRATIC.

There seems to be no doubt that the regular Democratic State ticket will be chosen in Virginia, without serious opposition. The friends of a readjustment of the State debt will, it is thought, carry the Legislature by a two-thirds majority.

DAMAGE TO THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

A heavy rain storm did considerable damage to the Interior Department. The entire North Hall, occupied by the Patent Office, was flooded. The ceiling of the North Hall being expected to fall, guards were stationed to warn people of the danger. Business in the Land-office was entirely suspended, and the land records suffered considerable. It is feared some of them will be destroyed before they can be placed in dry rooms.

The Fire at the Patent Office.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The Commission appointed to examine into the origin of the recent Patent Office fire closed the taking of testimony yesterday, and will submit its report in a few days to the Secretary of the Interior. A great many witnesses have been examined; the very general impression of the majority of the Commission is that the fire was the work of an incendiary or incendiaries. Photographic notes of the testimony will be written up as rapidly as possible, and it may be that when all this is settled, a different conclusion will be arrived at. A portion of the testimony indicates that the fire originated through the fire in the west wing of the building, whereas there is an abundance of proof that no fire was made to connect with the fire on the morning of the fire.

Judge Key Would Accept.

There is the best authority for the statement that Judge Key will gladly accept the place on the Bench made vacant by the death of Judge Emmons, and that his friends have so indicated to the President.

Rev. Stuart Robinson, the great Southern Presbyterian divine, has written a strong letter favoring the appointment of Gen. John M. Harlan, of Kentucky, to the vacant seat on the Supreme Bench.

NEW YORK CITY.

Railroad Accident.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A dispatch just received at the Central Police Station states that the express due at the Grand Central Depot in this city at 10 P. M. is in the North River near Riverdale. The Captain of the Thirty-fifth Precinct and Reserves have gone to the scene of the accident.

The officials at the Grand Central Depot say there has been no accident of a serious nature. The failure of the express train to arrive on time at 10 P. M. was caused by the 8 P. M. outward-bound freight train running off the track and blocking the road. No one, they have been informed, and they expect the express to reach here at 11 P. M. The greatest excitement prevails, however, and hundreds of persons throng the depot and vicinity, their anxiety intensified by the fact that owing to the storm the telegraph wires are all down and no particulars can be received.

Advices from Baltimore state considerable damage was done there by the storm, and trains on the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Road were delayed by wash-out culverts.

On the Hudson River Railroad a serious wash-out occurred near Riverdale, and the second Pacific express leaving New York at 8:30, met with an accident near there. The engine, two express cars, baggage car and one coach were thrown from the track by a wash. No lives lost, but the train was detained several hours.

Express Office Burned.

The American Express building, No. 61 Hudson street, was damaged by fire last night to the extent of $10,000.

Railroad Meeting.

The freight agents and managers of the great trunk lines met at 8:30 last night at the Windsor Hotel. The meeting was a private one, but it was ascertained that nearly all present favored a raising of freight rates on a basis satisfactory to all lines. They also favored continuing the present system of pooling on the western-bound freights, and to extend the same to the eastern-bound. After a session of about an hour, without coming to any definite arrangement, they adjourned.

Forger Rearrested.

Joe Elliott, supposed to be the principal in the sixty-four-thousand-dollar forgery on the Union Trust Company, who quietly walked out of the court room a few months ago while the officer who had him in charge was having his commitment papers signed, is again in custody.

Failure of a Fruit House.

The failure of Brown & Gorham, an old fruit importing house, is announced. Liabilities over $200,000; assets under $100,000. The failure is ascribed to depreciation of stock.

Comments on the Albany Convention.

The Herald says that the ticket nominated is a tolerably good one in the average Democratic estimation, and has excellent chances to be elected. Platforms are of little account, and that adopted at Albany will be forgotten before it is a week old.

The Tribune says that the unholy alliance between the Tammany and Canal Ring carried everything before it.

The Times says that the platform is chiefly remarkable for its omissions, and is of a lame, halting character. The platform is not compensated for by the character of its candidates.

The World says the platform includes a great many things about which most Democrats are substantially agreed, and touches only two or three things about which any serious differences exist among the Democrats. It may be pronounced tolerably satisfactory.

Sugar Brokers Suspended.

L. H. Sage & Co., sugar brokers, have suspended. Liabilities reported $50,000; assets unknown.

General Custer's Funeral.

At 2 P. M., October 10, the funeral of the late General Custer takes place at West Point.

Insurance Agency in Default.

The insurance agency of Alleger Bros. is discovered to be in default. The deficit is supposed to be about $140,000.

THE OLD WORLD.

National Associated Press to the Star.

SERIOUS RUSSIAN DEFEAT.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A dispatch from Constantinople says Munkhtar Pasha telegraphs that the battle at Ganiar lasted thirteen hours, and that the Russian positions were stormed and the enemy driven out and pursued to Archatshai. The Russians lost five thousand dead and wounded. The Turkish loss was unknown.

BATTLE REOPENED.

Another dispatch says the fighting around Karajoi was reopened yesterday (Thursday).

BOMBARDMENT OF RUSTCHUK.

A dispatch from Bucharest says that a heavy bombardment of Rustchuk had been commenced, and the town was very nearly destroyed, although the forts remained intact.

MONTENEGRO CAMPAIGN ENDED.

VIENNA, Oct. 4.—A dispatch to the Tagblatt, dated Oct. 4, says Prince Nikitch had written to the Czar that the Montenegrin campaign is ended, now that the occupation of the Montenegrin population is being accomplished.

RAILROAD DISASTER.

National Associated Press to the Star.

POTTSVILLE, PA., Oct. 5.—The excursion train from the Pennsylvania Railroad, held near Schwenk's Mill, yesterday, on the Pickering Valley Railroad, when near Phoenixville, last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, was badly wrecked by the rains washing out the track for some distance.

There were about two hundred persons on the train.

Up to 9:30 this morning the dispatches show twelve persons killed, and about fifty wounded. Owing to the confusion and excitement it is impossible to obtain names or the exact number killed and wounded.

which give thanks to the late

House of Representatives for refusing to appropriate more money for the support of soldiers to be used for oppressing citizens, and which pledge their nominal support to reform the Administration.

After reading and adopting the resolutions, the following ticket was put in nomination: Secretary of State, Allen C. Beach; Comptroller, Frederick P. Olcott; State Treasurer, Augustus Schoemaker; State Engineer, Horatio Seymour, Jr. After the appointment of a State Committee, the Convention adjourned sine die.

Battle of Germantown.

National Associated Press to the Star.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—Notwithstanding the threatening weather a large number of people arrived at Germantown yesterday morning for the purpose of celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the battle of Germantown. Salutes were fired and bells rung, and there was a grand parade of the military, civil, secret and other organizations. After the parade a meeting was held in the Town Hall, presided over by Washington Picotius, the oldest inhabitant, at which addresses were made. The day closed with salutes and an entertainment by the various organizations.

Senator Morton.

National Associated Press to the Star.

RICHMOND, IND., Oct. 5.—Senator Morton's house at Indianapolis is being repaired preparatory to removing him. He will be taken there about the 15th of the month. McDonald's promise to pair off with Morton is the subject of much discussion by local politicians. Morton receives calls almost daily from prominent gentlemen of both parties from various parts of the country. Col. John A. Bridgeford, Consul at Havre, France, came home to visit him. His condition is slightly improved.

Opened His Arm—Cut to Pieces.

National Associated Press to the Star.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Oct. 5.—Henry Kulle, aged fifty years, cut a vein in his left arm, yesterday morning, from which he died in a short time. He thought he was a burden to every person.

The body of a man was found on the track of the B. & O. Railway, one mile this side of McKeesport, all cut to pieces. It is not known what train ran over him. He lived in the neighborhood.

Archbishop Bailey's Remains.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 5.—Archbishop Bailey's remains were taken at 9 o'clock to the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot, en route for Baltimore. Immense crowds lined the streets leading from the Cathedral to the depot, where services were held this morning.

George French, a well-known lumber dealer on Greenback, Mich., was arrested, yesterday, for forgery.

LATEST LOCAL.

FRANK DIRR, who cut his wife's throat previously, was arraigned before his Honor this morning and waived an examination. Bail $1,000.

MOSSES MURPHY, one of the young men connected with the burglary of Wunderman's shoe store a few days ago, was held to answer this morning in the sum of $1,500 bail.

JOHN A. GALL and W. W. Frost, charged with stealing a bay mare some days ago, as narrated in the Star, waived an examination this morning and were held in $2,000 each.

REPORTER—"Good morning, Coroner! Any murders last night, any broken necks or mangled forms this morning?" Coroner—"No, I believe not." Reporter—"Nothing lively about your office, then? Good day?"

A BOY about ten years of age was driving a cart loaded with gravel along the canal, about noon to-day, near Seymour street, when the horse became unmanageable and backed into the canal. Both horse and boy were rescued with the utmost difficulty.

ANNIE REMME was honorably dismissed by Judge Wilson this morning on the charge of embezzling dry goods valued at $9 entrusted to her care by Caroline Gels. It appears that Annie was agent for Caroline, and consequently the Court could not convict her. Mrs. Gels was looked up in default of the costs of the case.

Missing.

Any information of Margaret McGuire, formerly an inmate of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, from which she was taken by Mrs. Casey, of Ninth street, in the year 1867, and who is now missing, will be thankfully received by her friends and relatives. Apply to John Bevan, Jr., attorney at law, No. 22 West Court street. A liberal reward has been promised to any one informing where she may be found.

Death Record.

The following deaths have been placed on record since our last report:

Margaret Sweeney, 47 yrs, Ireland.

Michael Steigerwald, 23 yrs, city.

Laura Wiehaus, 23 yrs, city.

Announcements.

The Cincinnati Temperance Reform Club will give a literary and musical entertainment at their hall, Nos. 200 and 202 Vine street, this evening.

Eva Green.

The jury in the Eva Green inquest returned the following verdict to-day:

"We, the jury, do find that deceased came to her death by means of some mechanical instruments in the hands of Mrs. Mina Meble, and used for the purpose of producing a criminal abortion. The jury further find that Caroline Adair assisted in procuring said abortion. We, the jury, endeavor to procure the evidence of C. Walker Hogue, the alleged seducer of Eva Green, as they deemed it of the highest importance, and regret that it could not be had."

AMUSEMENTS.

PIKE'S OPERA-HOUSE.

Barlow, Wilson, Primrose and West, the best minstrels here for years, are still drawing a full and appreciative house. The instrumental music by Prof. Herwig and Orchestra is brilliant, and the vocal music charming, the songs by Rudolph Percy and Lamont being real treats. Barlow, Wilson and Hall overflow with wit and humor. The clog dance by Primrose and West is a fine exhibition of graceful and symmetrical movements. Go and see them to-night, as an entire new bill will be presented.

ROBINSON'S OPERA-HOUSE.

John T. Raymond will appear this evening for the first time in this city as "Jim Fenton." The fine audience that witnessed "Colonel Sellers" last evening gave evidence of how well Mr. Raymond is appreciated here. His new piece will undoubtedly draw a full house. Matinee to-morrow, and last performance Saturday night.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Mr. Lawrence Barrett last night gave a superb rendition of "Iago," in "Othello," at the Grand Opera-house. The acting was masterly. Mr. Barrett being twice called before the curtain to acknowledge the compliments of the audience before him. Mr. W. H. Power's "Othello" was a praiseworthy effort and a good representation of the jealous Moor. The "Cassio" of Mr. Price and the "Desdemona" of Miss Cummins were very fine and pleasing. The entire cast, in fact, was good. "Richelieu" this evening.

WOOD'S THEATER.

"Love Among the Ruins" still keeps the boards at this handsome place of amusement. Miss Hughes as "Kitty Dale," the flower girl of New Orleans, shows herself as a compound of Aimee and Nellie McHenry. Her singing and dancing are very pleasing and a fine house nightly rewards her efforts. "Love Among the Ruins," which is produced by a most provoking force, will be repeated this evening and two times to-morrow.

HOMICIDE.

A Young Man Shoots His Uncle near Claysville, Ky.

A distressing homicide occurred Wednesday evening near Claysville in Harrison County. John W. Bayless shot and killed his uncle, Amos Bayless. He gave himself up next morning and was brought to Lynchburg last night and lodged in jail to await trial.

Your correspondent visited him at his quarters at a late hour last night and gathered from him the following particulars of the affair. It seems that this young man and a man by the name of Ben. Whittaker were returning home about 5 o'clock in the evening from a corn-cropping on a neighbor's farm.

When passing James Jolly's house Whittaker stopped to speak to Jolly, while young Bayless rode on up the road as far as the barn, when his uncle Amos came out of Jolly's house and called to him to stop, as he wished to speak to him. He did so, and got down off his horse, and both of them sat down on a log near by.

His uncle then told him he wanted him to tell him who it was he said he had seen in the woods with his daughter. This the boy refused to do, unless he was put upon oath. The old man said he would make him, and began striking at him with a heavy cane he had in his hand. The boy tried to get out of his way, but he followed him up and a ruck him several times across the arms and hands.

At last young Bayless ran his hand behind him, and told him that unless he stopped he would hurt him. He persisted in striking at him and cursing him violently, saying that he would kill him. The young man then drew his pistol, when his uncle tried to hit him across the arm and knock it from him.

Falling in that, he ran his hand behind him to draw his own pistol, when the young man fired, the ball striking his uncle in the breast just below the heart, killing him instantly. Bayless fled, remaining in the woods all night. Next morning he went into Claysville and gave himself up.

The prisoner is just twenty-one years of age and is known to be a sober, steady boy. Two pistols were found upon the body of old man Bayless after his death, and it is said that he has carried such weapons for years. Deceased is about fifty years of age and leaves a wife and four children.

Bayless' daughter, the original cause of the difficulty, is now enroute. The old man professed to know the man who had thus imposed upon his girl, but young Bayless had told him on several occasions that he had seen her in the woods with another man.

He refused to disclose the person's name unless put upon oath. For that reason Bayless thought his nephew was lying to him; hence he told him on that evening, as he had done on several occasions before, that if he did not tell who the person was he would kill him.

THE BUILDING SEASON.

What Cincinnati is Doing.

The following building permits have been issued since our last report:

Henry Rutiger, build three three-story brick, south side Clark, between Rittenhouse and Linn; cost $15,000.

Richards & Fasse, build two-story brick, corner Crown and Home street; cost $5,500.
